

Yesterday Evening's Malls.

A little girl about 10 years of age, the daughter of Mr. Ed- ward Weller, residing near the Basin, was yesterday afternoon on Cross street, while on her way home from school, by a ferocious cur, which was barking at her, she was seized by the back of the neck, and she was thrown to the ground, and she was so badly injured that she was unable to rise. When the dog was taken to the pound, she was found to be so badly injured that she was unable to rise. When the dog was taken to the pound, she was found to be so badly injured that she was unable to rise.

On Saturday morning, between the hours of eleven and twelve, a gang of rowdies, several of whom were half grown boys, disguised themselves with transparencies, lashed to their faces, and with magnificent build, and they proceeded to break down the windows of the City Council, and they were so badly injured that they were unable to rise. When the dog was taken to the pound, she was found to be so badly injured that she was unable to rise.

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE CANAL.—A letter from Cumberland, dated June 14th, says that there was no news of interest concerning the Canal. The latest accounts from Dam No. 4, state that the water was very high, but no more damage had been done. The Cumberland Civilian of yesterday, says:—The latest news from Dam No. 4, was received on Saturday evening, at which time Supt. Stone says there was seven feet too much water in the river to admit of his beginning operations to repair the breach. Since that letter was written, the water has risen a foot or two more.

PRESIDENT OF THE ALEXANDRIA CANAL COMPANY.—The vacancy in the office of President of the Alexandria Canal Company, caused by the death of Mr. Joseph Eades, (who for so long a period held that position, to the entire satisfaction of the Company, and of this community, so closely connected with the interests of that work,) has been filled by the election of Reuben Johnston, Esq. For a great many years Mr. Johnston has served the Company, as its Secretary and Treasurer, in a most faithful and efficient manner, and this compliment bestowed upon him by the stockholders is well merited. We know of few who could bring to the office of President of the Company a more thorough knowledge and more practical experience than Mr. J., and we feel justified in saying that to no one could the interests of the Company, and our community be more safely entrusted. The Canal, (as is shown by the reports of the Board of Directors and Engineer, published in yesterday's Gazette,) is in excellent condition, and but for the numerous interruptions from the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, would have done a fine business—and will, we yet hope, prove as beneficial to our community as its strongest advocates could desire.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—On yesterday morning, a detachment of the rowdies that infest the city committed a dastardly outrage at Berry's Grove, where resides Mr. Thos. C. Magruder, pay clerk of the Washington Aqueduct. The lady of Mr. Magruder was insulted as she passed on her way to church. Continuing on their course, the band of vagabonds came close on to the residence of Mr. Magruder, shouting and being very noisy. Mr. M. told them to go off, when he was immediately attacked with a volley of stones and pistol shots. A lynch mob wounded him in the hand, and he was severely bruised in the head by a blow from a stone. The rowdies then made off. At a later hour they returned and took possession of the spring, searing the servants of Mr. M. so that they dare not look abroad. After a general pulling out of bottles, and passing some time in carousal, they retired.—Wash. Star.

THE ALEXANDRIA BOARDING SCHOOL.—The Richmond Enquirer noticing the sale, by Mr. Halliwell, of the Alexandria Boarding School, to Col. Wm. S. Kemper, says:—"Colonel Kemper, for several years, was Professor of the University of Virginia, and hundreds of students will bear testimony to his very peculiar fitness for the managing head of a large boarding school—while his two sons, Delaware and Keweenaw Kemper, both graduated with distinction at the University, and have since been engaged in teaching, and have since been qualified as teachers. The Colonel is one of those men who do whatever they undertake, and we predict a flourishing future for 'Old Bristle Castle.'"

THE NEW WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT.—The new city officers were duly installed in office on Monday. The mayor's inaugural address was appropriate to the occasion.—His first official act was the transmission of a message to the council recommending the enlargement of the police force of the city, in order that he may be able to preserve and maintain the peace of the city in all emergencies. The consolidation of the two police corps, and the placing of them under one responsible head, are suggestions in the message. Bills to reorganize the police have been introduced into both branches of the city council.

A "BURDEN" BAKERY.—It is stated that a company (mainly, if not entirely composed of our own citizens) is about to erect an immense bakery to be fitted up with Burden's patent machinery and oven, of a capacity for baking 300 to 400 barrels of flour per day by use of only one-half ton of coal. The capital stock is $50,000, $30,000 of which has already been subscribed for; and the lot, (on F street near 10th,) has also been offered as a suitable building, has also been offered as a suitable building, has also been offered as a suitable building.

INHERENT ACT.—The Georgetown correspondent of the Washington Star, says:—"One of the most unnatural and inhuman acts of youthful depravity we have heard of for some time, was perpetrated by a parcel of boys residing in the southern part of the town, on Sunday evening. Mr. Thorn, the owner of a valuable horse, had turned the animal out of the stable for a short while to graze about the vacant lots; he wandered on the banks of the canal, where these unprincipled little miscreants found him, and succeeded, by pelting the animal with stones in forcing him into one of the canal locks, where he was drowned. Mr. Thorn is a poor man and wholly unable to bear the loss, and we sincerely hope that the names of all the little vandals will be obtained, and their parents or guardians compelled to indemnify Mr. Thorn by paying him the full value of the animal."

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—We have received the July number of Graham's Magazine, from Mr. George Siger's Book Store, No. 75, Prince street. It contains a number of colored fashion plates, and a variety of reading matter.

DROWNED.—Captain William Mankin, of this city, was drowned in Nanjemoy Reach, on Wednesday evening, the 9th instant, from off his vessel.

BOLD BOBBY.—The rooms of Hon. John B. Clark, of Missouri, in Washington, were entered on Saturday night last by forcing back the bolt, and his pockets rifled of the sum $700, $400 of which are in treasury notes. As yet no clue to the robbers has been obtained.—Union.

A large brick building, the residence of the late Albernethy Fry, near the river, on G street, in Washington, was burned down on Sunday evening.

The Odd Fellows' Procession in Washington, again postponed on Monday, was to have come off yesterday afternoon.

The Brentsville Journal says:—We learn that on Tuesday last the barn of Mr. Franklin Lewis, near Groveton, was struck by lightning and several cattle killed.

A Court Martial for the trial of Commander Boutwell, U. S. N., is now sitting in Washington.

AQUARIUM.—In the window of Messrs. H. Cook & Co's. store, under Sarepta Hall, may be seen an aquarium.
